Britt's Bits

Where has 2018 gone? School is in progress and soon the leaves will begin changing their color. Speaking of change, there are changes coming to the Olney Public Library!

As in the past, you have once again entrusted us with your hard-earned dollars to keep this library moving forward. Thank You. We will continue to examine ourselves and our community, with diligence, to keep up with needs, wants and demands in materials, procedures and technology. Libraries today are, (to use a really overused term) fluid. We are changing and evolving in our efforts to keep pace.

To facilitate communication, come take advantage of our new suggestion box. Something you'd like to see here? Suggest it. Idea for a program? Suggest it. The suggestion box is located next to our copy machine. You may leave your name or remain anonymous. I love to hear from our patrons. I'm looking forward to bringing more to our library and our community.
